CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

The name of this association shall be THE PHI BETA KAPPA ASSOCIATION IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

ARTICLE II.—PURPOSES.

The purposes of this association shall be the intellectual and social intercourse of its members and the promotion of the aims of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. This association shall consist of graduate and honorary members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, provided that the term "graduate" as herein used shall include and apply to all members whose classes have graduated.

Section 2. Applications for membership shall be made in writing to the Secretary-Treasurer and shall be referred by him to the Council. The Council shall vote separately upon each application, and two dissenting votes shall exclude an applicant from membership.

ARTICLE IV.—DUES.

The annual dues shall be two dollars for each member.

ARTICLE V.—OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of this association shall be a President, a Vice-President, and a Secretary-Treasurer, who shall have all the customary powers and duties of such officers.

Section 2. The foregoing officers shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the association and shall hold office for one year or until their successors are chosen.

ARTICLE VI.—Council.

Section 1. The officers named in Article V and four Councillors shall constitute a Council, to which shall be entrusted the management of the association.

Section 2. The Councillors shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the association. The Councillors elected at the meeting for the year 1913 shall divide themselves by lot into two classes of two each, the first to serve until the annual meeting of 1914 and the second to serve until the annual meeting of 1915, and thereafter at each annual meeting two Councillors shall be elected to serve two years and to take the place of the two retiring Councillors.

Section 3. The Council shall fill any vacancy in its body by election of a member to hold office for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VII.—Meetings.

Section 1. The annual meeting of the association shall be held on the third Monday in March, and other regular meetings shall be held at such times as the Council may determine.

Section 2. Special meetings of the association may be called by the Council upon its own initiative, and the Council shall call a special meeting upon the signed request of ten members. At least three days' notice of all special meetings shall be given to each member.

Section 3. Ten members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the association.

Section 4. The Council shall meet at least once a month from October to April inclusive, and special meetings may be called by order of the President or by any three members of the Council.

Section 5. At any meeting of the Council, a majority of its members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII.—Nominating Committee.

At least two weeks before the annual meeting of the association, the Council shall appoint a committee of three members to nominate candidates for the various offices. This nominating committee shall report at least two nominees for each office to be filled at the annual meeting, and additional nominations may be made from the floor by any member.

ARTICLE IX.—Activities.

Section 1. The President shall attend the meetings of the National Council as the delegate of the association. In the event of his inability so to act, the Council shall appoint a delegate.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Council to make provision for the meetings of the association, for the exercises and entertainments at such meetings, and for the social and literary intercourse of the members of the association, and to devise and prosecute plans to increase the influence of the association upon its members and upon the community.

Section 3. At any meeting, when a paper shall have been read or an address delivered, the subject thereof shall be open to discussion. No person, however, shall speak for more than ten minutes, and at the expiration of ten minutes it shall be the duty of the presiding officer to call the speaker to order. At the close of the discussion, the presiding officer shall invite the speaker of the evening to make such further remarks as the discussion may have suggested.

ARTICLE X.—Amendments.

This constitution may be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any duly called meeting of the association, provided that at least ten days before the meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be submitted a notice of said meeting and a copy of said proposed amendment be mailed to each member.

MEMBERS.

The name of each member is followed by his academic and professional degrees, the name of the institution at which he took his first degree, and his class year. If he is a member of a chapter at some other institution, the name of his chapter is given also. Only the highest is given of two or more degrees forming a sequence, for example, A.B., A.M., Ph.D., or B.S., M.S.

Honorary members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society are designated by Hon. and the year of their election. Foundation members of this Association are designated by the letter F.
